

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

MICHAEL ROARTY-NUGENT, Plaintiff, vs. CUYAHOGA COUNTY, et al. Defendants.	Case No. 1:20-CV-01025 Judge J. Philip Calabrese Magistrate Judge Thomas M. Parker
PLAINTIFF MICHAEL ROARTY-NUGENT'S FIFTH QUARTERLY STATUS REPORT REGARDING FEES AND COSTS INCURRED

As required by the Court's standing order, Plaintiff Michael Roarty-Nugent reports that, through June 30, 2022, he has incurred approximately $186,808 in attorney fees and $6,958 in costs.

This approximate amount reflects fees incurred at the attorneys' current hourly rates, which are re-evaluated annually based on demand for the firm's services and market standards. Plaintiff, if he prevails, reserves the right to seek recovery of his incurred fees at his counsel's then-current rates.

The Supreme Court has recognized that an award of current, rather than historic, rates is "an appropriate adjustment for the delay in payment" for prevailing parties in fee-shifting matters.

Missouri v. Jenkins by Agyei, 491 U.S. 274, 284 (1989).
